

POSTSECONDARY
STAR EVENTS OPPORTUNITIES

---

Postsecondary participants will have the opportunity to showcase their leadership and career preparation skills by participating in one of the following STAR Events:

- Advocacy – an individual or team event recognizing participants who demonstrate their knowledge, skills, and ability to actively identify a local, state, national, or global concern, research the topic, identify a target audience and potential partnerships, form an action plan, and advocate for the issue in an effort to positively affect a policy or law.
- Culinary Arts – a team event recognizing participants enrolled in occupational culinary arts/food service training programs for their ability to work as members of a team to produce a quality meal using industrial culinary arts/food service techniques and equipment.
- Early Childhood – an individual event recognizing participants who demonstrate their ability to use knowledge and skills gained from their enrollment in an early childhood program. Participants must prepare a portfolio and a resource container. On site, participants must plan and present to evaluators an activity related to the theme in response to a case study provided during the event and an oral presentation describing the activity.
- Fashion Design – an individual event recognizes participants who apply fashion design skills learned in Family and Consumer Sciences courses to design and market clothing styles.
- Interior Design – and individual or team event recognizes participants who apply interior design skills learned in Family and Consumer Sciences courses to design interiors to meet the living space needs of clients.
- Teach and Train – an individual event recognizing participants for their exploration of the education and training fields through research and hands-on experience.

Event guidelines will be published in the Competitive Events section in the 2014-2015 Competitive Events Guide – www.fcclainc.org. For more information, contact starevents@fcclainc.org.
