Text Complexity Analysis of The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins

Qualitative Measures

Levels of Meaning:
The novel has a multiple levels of meaning. Literally, the story centers around Katniss, who lives in the not-too-distant future in the remains of what was once North America. As her home district’s representative to the annual Hunger games, she competes for survival. The book is also a social commentary on reality television and social issues.

Structure:
A simple structure told by a first person narrator with foreshadowing and flashback, the book does require the reader to picture a future world with event and customs that may be unfamiliar.

Language Conventionality and Clarity:
Vivid description, figurative language and imagery is used to help the reader picture this world in the not-too-distant future. The voice of the narrator is conversational, familiar, and contemporary.

Knowledge Demands:
Higher level themes of moral dilemma, social criticism, government control, war and hunger. Events of the novel are unique to Katniss’s world of the future and require a deeper level of thinking on the part of the reader.
