

QUESTION	ANSWER
FCCLA is the only CTSO offered in Kansas.
FCCLA is the only youth organization with family as its central focus
FCCLA leadership is broken into three categories: chapter, state, national.
The official FCCLA website is www.fcclainc.org .
The official magazine of FCCLA is called Teen Times Today .
One of the purposes of FCCLA is to promote greater understanding between youth and adults.
One of the purposes of FCCLA is to strengthen the family as a basic unit of society.
One of the purposes of FCCLA is to prepare young women to be good wives and mothers.
Within the creed, FCCLA members are the “builders of trust.”
Within the creed, FCCLA members “face the future with warm courage and expectations.”
The FCCLA motto is Reaching New Horizons.
The official FCCLA colors are red and white.
The official FCCLA flower is red and white roses.
When adding a school or state name to the FCCLA emblem, the name must appear under the official emblem.
The FCCLA tagline is The Ultimate Leadership Experience.
FHA was started in 1945.
FHA changed to FCCLA in 1989.
The national FCCLA theme this year is “UP: Unlimited Possibilities.”
The National Outreach Program this year is “Lead2Feed.”
The FCCLA creed is recited during the Opening Ceremony.
The FCCLA creed is recited during the Closing Ceremony.
The National Program that would work in conjunction with a Nutrition & Wellness class would be Student Body.
The National Program that would work in conjunction with a Family Studies class would be FACTS.
There are four Power of One Modules.
The 5 steps of the Planning Process in order are: Identify Concerns, Set a Goal, Form a Plan, Execute your Plan, Follow-Up
The 2016-2017 Kansas FCCLA Theme is: “My Future is Bright.”

There are four units within the Career Connection National Program.
The three topic areas of FACTS are people, vehicles, and roads.
There are five units of the Families First National Program.
The four units of the Financial Fitness National Program: Earning, Saving, Spending, Protecting.
There are four steps to the FCCLA Planning Process.
Peer Educators work across the state to inform members about national programs.
The 'STAR' in STAR Events stands for "Student Taking Accountability & Responsibility"
A main motion should be stated, "I move to..." instead of "I make a motion..."
An agenda is a written record of what happened in a meeting.
The purpose of Parliamentary Procedure is to help the meeting run smoothly.
Minutes are the plan or order of business for the meeting.
The person presiding at a meeting is referred to as the chair, chairman, or chairperson if they don't have a regular title, such as president.
A tool for calling the meeting to order is called a 'gavel.'
If a motion is 'seconded,' it means that no one else liked the motion and it dies.
Bylaws are an official set of guidelines that the chapter, district, state, or national FCCLA abide by.
There are two types of committees: standing and special.
If the president is absent, the first vice-president would lead the meeting.
The FCCLA motto is "Toward New Horizons."
The FCCLA tagline is "Building Ultimate Leaders."
Parliamentary Procedure can be defined as: the right of the minority, right of the minority, and partiality to none.	