2019 NATIONAL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE CODE OF CONDUCT FORM

FCCLA Code of Conduct

A copy of the Delegate Conduct Practices and Procedures and the Mandatory Dress Policy may be found in this section. The dress code applies to all participants while attending General Sessions, Business Session, Exhibits, Workshops, and STAR Events Recognition Sessions. FCCLA requires every student delegate (including guests) to read and complete these forms as partial completion of NLC attendance requirements. Please make sufficient copies for your delegates to sign and return to you prior to the National Leadership Conference. Chapter advisers should bring these forms with them to the conference for possible reference. Please do not send signed copies to FCCLA National Headquarters.

Code of Ethics for Adult Advisers

FCCLA offers training to those students who have a career objective in Family and Consumer Sciences and related fields. Individual conduct and appearance is part of this training and becomes apparent at FCCLA's National Leadership Conference. Advisers/Chaperones set an example of expected behavior from their students. For this reason, the following Code of Ethics has been established for adults attending the National Leadership Conference.

It becomes the responsibility of each and every participant to see that proper conduct is adhered to at all times. Violations of these practices and procedures will be dealt with accordingly by the FCCLA national staff and the applicable state association. These policies and procedures are considered to be in addition to any guidelines established at the school, district, and state level.

- Advisers/Chaperones shall conduct daily meetings with their students for progress reports, time schedules, and other activities.
- Advisers/Chaperones shall keep an agenda for each student so that they may be reached at any time during the conference.
- Advisers/Chaperones are responsible for their students at all times and should always be available to be contacted.
- Advisers/Chaperones shall be responsible for seeing that participants they are chaperoning adhere to all conduct practices and procedures.
- The rules as stated in the Delegate Conduct Practices and Procedures and the Mandatory Dress Code Policy are called to your attention to review and should govern the behavior of advisers as well as students and guests.
- Advisers/Chaperones are responsible for enforcing the Mandatory Dress Code Policy. The Dress Code Policy applies to delegates, advisers, guests, and all other attendees at the National Leadership Conference. Thoroughly review and impress upon your students the importance of adhering to the Mandatory Dress Code Policy. Emphasize that any individuals not adhering to the Dress Code Policy will not be admitted into sessions. FCCLA recommends you address the dress code with your students before leaving the hotel to attend sessions.

Delegate Conduct Practices and Procedures

FCCLA National Headquarters requires every student delegate to read and complete the Attendance Permission Form as part of the completion of NLC attendance requirements. This form should be returned to your FCCLA chapter adviser prior to attendance at the National Leadership Conference.

- The term "delegate" shall mean any FCCLA member, including advisers, attending conferences (middle school, high school, collegiate, alumni, and professional).
- There shall be no defacing of public or private property. Any damage to any property or furnishing in the hotel rooms, convention center, or any other area must be paid for by the individual or chapter responsible.
